A LIFE of CONTRIBUTION

REMEMBRANCE:

DeCUBELLIS, Lucy Mae
"Mammy"

Our celebration of Lucy DeCubellis, aka "Mammy", who passed away peacefully on July 14, 2018 at the age of 86.

To Celebrate, to acknowledge Lucy
(Mammy), to show the significance of her life. To commemorate, observe, mark, keep, honor, remember, and memorialize her life’s contributions would be fitting and the most proper thing to do.

The contributions she left here cannot be placed in a single article or even a book. A most wonderful, loving soul who provided the powerful tools of love and caring to all that had the good fortune to know her.

Steadily working for the proper guidance of all children, she always prompted them to make the right life choices. Decades of service toward the education of an untold number of students, from the media center at Cypress Elementary or serving as the principal’s secretary at Ridgewood High and Gulf High. Students there benefited from her caring counseling and candy jar as they waited for the principal. She loved helping anyone and everyone and was famous for her hugs which she gave freely to all. An avid fan of football and following team standings. The Gators were her favorite college team and Tim Tebow had a special place in her heart. Gardening was a passion and she filled her entire yard with colorful flowers which reflected her appreciation for beauty.

She is predeceased by her husband, Albert and her grandson, Jason Kehoe. She is survived by her children: Pat Mallett (Butch), Tom DeCubellis (Linda), Bob DeCubellis (Donna), Jim DeCubellis (Shari), Ed DeCubellis (Deanna), Sue Smith, and John DeCubellis. She leaves behind 23 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Let us forget the thousands of children and students who witnessed her love and caring which impact them still to this day.

If you have a specific request for information not presented, please don’t hesitate to ask and we will try our best to find or secure the information for you. We all have questions. Don’t forget to ask.

NOTE: Schools and ours, start up on August 13th. We are looking forward to providing the very best possible care, education and guidance to our existing and newly arriving students.

PLEASE acquire and bring in a “Kinder Mat” as the only real requirement for VPK students.
RESPECT:
There was a remarkable turn out of support for our family and community. Held at the Phi Delta Kappa House in Trinity.

The family really pulled together and did so very much to prepare and coordinate this celebration of life. This could not have taken place if not for the efforts of so many family members and friends. You are thanked, gratefully.

The facility of course filled with all facets of our families and extended families. It also included representatives from her past that came to share how Mammy impacted their lives over many years. Student from years gone by that are now elders themselves.

A few warm quotes:
It is with care that even the best intended words of comfort don’t seem to come out right. There are no truly right words to share with those who suffer loss. We love you and we’re sorry.

Come back. Even as a shadow, even as a dream.
—Euripides

Without you in my arms, I feel an emptiness in my soul. I find myself searching the crowds for your face—I know it’s an impossibility, but I cannot help myself.
—Nicholas Sparks

If the people we love are stolen from us, the way to have them live on is to never stop loving them.
—James O’Barr

Sometimes, when one person is absent, the whole world seems depopulated.
—Alphonse de Lamartine

It takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, and a day to love them, but it takes an entire lifetime to forget them.
—Anonymous

But she wasn’t around, and that’s the thing when your parents die, you feel like instead of going in to every fight with backup, you are going into every fight alone.
—Mitch Albom

We bereaved are not alone. We belong to the largest company in all the world—the company of those who have known suffering.
—Helen Keller

We love you and we’re sorry.

Services & Functions That Hit Close to Home

Free listing of our businesses and services. By utilizing their respective services, you not only helping them but also helping their children, “Our Children”.

Note: If any of our parents out there would like to have their businesses presented in our newsletter, please share your interest with our office and we will make every effort to have them listed.

DONATE: We encourage our parents and the community to donate supplies and materials to the Sea of Learning as these help provide us with the tools to spark the interests of our children in how they express themselves. Empty paper rolls, scratch paper, etc....
